THREE BY THREE SEATTLE OPENS FIRST
SHOWROOM AT PACIFIC MARKET CENTER
Showroom Features Renowned Home and Office Products for Design Conscious Consumers

SEATTLE – Pacific Market Center, the leading permanent wholesale market on the west coast, announces their latest showroom addition, Three by Three Seattle, featuring designer home, office and school products including desk and wall organizers, bulletin boards, magnets, frames and bookmarks. In addition to numerous gift shops, stationery stores and museum shops, the company has a broad range of design oriented customers such as The Container Store, Crate & Barrel, Urban Outfitters, and Paper Source.

“We are very excited about introducing our full line to all the design conscious buyers visiting the Pacific Market Center,” said Kelsey Heebink, public relations director at Three by Three Seattle. “We pride ourselves in offering high quality, innovative and functional products and the new showroom will give our customers full access to all our lines.”

The new Three by Three Seattle showroom will feature a number of product lines all aimed at design conscious consumers across the globe. The company’s design team strives to create products that incorporate performance with visual appeal and is the designer of the original magnetic strip bulletin board which is coated with an environmentally friendly powder finish, and powerful rare earth magnets.

Located in Seattle, Wash., Gwen Weinberg and Anita Nadelson co-founded Three by Three Seattle in 1995 by reintroducing what was formerly known as Page 29, the company Weinberg had originally established more than a decade ago. Since then, Three by Three Seattle has excelled as a design, manufacturing, and distribution company as their new products are consistently being featured in prestigious magazines and primary media outlets.

“With Three by Three Seattle’s products previously only been shown at shows in Paris, Chicago and New York, we are especially proud and excited about introducing their products to west coast buyers and being the first mart the company calls home,” said Lisa Goodman, marketing director, Pacific Market Center.

Three by Three Seattle also creates custom promotional products and has worked with a wide variety of clients, including Nike, Starbucks, MTV, Herman Miller, NBA, Travel & Leisure, Bravo Networks, Nine West, W Hotels and Wired Magazine. All of Three by Three Seattle’s products are made with superior materials and produced according to the highest standards of quality.

Located at suite 580 at Pacific Market Center, the Three by Three Seattle showroom is open to buyers during shows and by appointment. For a full list of product lines featured in the Three by Three Seattle showroom and for more information, visit www.pacificmarketcenter.com
